TERMS & CONDITIONS

LazyChimp.com | Vehicle Offer & Transaction Terms

1. ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

By accessing or using LazyChimp.com, requesting, submitting, issuing, receiving, or acting upon a vehicle offer, or initiating, negotiating, or completing a transaction arising from information obtained through LazyChimp.com, each seller and participating dealer ("User") acknowledges and agrees to be bound by these Terms & Conditions, to the extent enforceable under applicable law.

These Terms apply to vehicle offers and transactions facilitated through LazyChimp.com, including transactions completed directly between sellers and independent dealers. No separate signature on this Offer Sheet is required where a binding agreement has otherwise been validly formed.

Users who do not agree to these Terms must discontinue use of the services and must not initiate or proceed with transactions through the platform.

2. OFFER ISSUER & TRANSACTION RESPONSIBILITY

Each offer is issued by the purchasing dealer identified on the Offer Sheet ("Purchasing Dealer"). When LazyChimp.com is the Purchasing Dealer, it acts as the prospective buyer. When an independent dealer issues an offer, LazyChimp.com acts solely as a marketplace and communication platform and is not a party to the underlying vehicle purchase.

Each Purchasing Dealer is independently responsible for its offers, inspections, payments, title transfers, regulatory compliance, and transaction obligations. LazyChimp.com does not guarantee the performance or financial obligations of independent dealers.

3. CONDITIONAL OFFERS & INSPECTION

All offers are preliminary, conditional, and valid only through their stated expiration date. Offers are subject to satisfactory vehicle inspection, verification of condition, mileage, equipment, ownership, history, title, and all information supplied by the seller.

The Purchasing Dealer may inspect, test-drive, photograph, diagnose, and obtain vehicle history reports. Material discrepancies, undisclosed damage, mechanical defects, warning lights, missing equipment, title irregularities, or changes in condition may result in an adjusted or withdrawn offer.

The seller may decline any revised offer without penalty. An Offer Sheet does not constitute a completed sale or unconditional obligation to purchase.

4. SELLER REPRESENTATIONS & WARRANTIES

The seller represents and warrants that:

The seller possesses lawful authority to sell the vehicle and transfer valid title.

All information provided concerning ownership, mileage, condition, history, and equipment is accurate and complete to the best of the seller's knowledge.

All known material mechanical defects, accident damage, structural damage, flood or fire damage, title brands, odometer discrepancies, liens, and other material conditions have been disclosed.

The vehicle has not been knowingly misrepresented, materially altered, or stripped of represented equipment.

The seller has not knowingly concealed information materially affecting the vehicle's value, safety, or legal ownership.

These representations survive completion of the transaction to the extent permitted by law. Fraud, intentional concealment, material misrepresentation, or breach of an applicable seller warranty may give rise to remedies under applicable law.

5. TITLE, LIENS & OWNERSHIP

The seller must provide satisfactory identification, proof of ownership, and all documentation necessary to transfer lawful title. All titled owners must authorize the transaction.

Outstanding liens, loans, leases, and other encumbrances must be disclosed. The Purchasing Dealer may refuse or suspend completion until acceptable title and required releases are obtained.

6. PURCHASE PRICE, PAYOFFS & PAYMENT

The stated offer represents the gross purchase price unless otherwise specified. Verified loan payoffs, negative equity, and expressly disclosed charges permitted by law may affect the seller's net proceeds.

Payoff amounts remain estimates until confirmed by the applicable lienholder. Payment methods, timing, and settlement requirements shall be governed by the final transaction documents and applicable law.

7. DELIVERY & COMPLETION

The vehicle must be delivered in substantially the condition represented when the offer was issued, together with all agreed equipment, keys, and required documents.

A transaction is completed only upon execution of the required purchase and transfer documents and satisfaction of applicable closing conditions. Ownership, possession, and risk of loss transfer according to those documents and applicable law.

8. POST-SALE MISREPRESENTATION & REMEDIES

The Purchasing Dealer retains all remedies available under applicable law for subsequently discovered fraud, intentional concealment, material misrepresentation, defective title, odometer fraud, or breach of applicable seller representations or warranties.

Available remedies may include legally recoverable damages, rescission where authorized, and other relief permitted by law.

Ordinary mechanical failures or previously unknown defects do not automatically establish seller liability absent a legally recognized basis for recovery.

9. INDEPENDENT DEALER TRANSACTIONS

Transactions between sellers and independent dealers are conducted solely between those parties. LazyChimp.com does not control or guarantee independent dealer inspections, purchase decisions, payments, title processing, or contractual performance.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, LazyChimp.com shall not be responsible for disputes arising solely from an independent dealer's acts, omissions, or failure to perform its obligations.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY & INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by law, LazyChimp.com, its affiliates, owners, officers, employees, and representatives shall not be liable for losses arising solely from the independent conduct or contractual obligations of third-party dealers or sellers.

Users agree to indemnify and hold harmless LazyChimp.com and its affiliates against third-party claims, losses, damages, and reasonable legal expenses to the extent directly caused by the indemnifying User's fraud, intentional misconduct, material misrepresentation, or material breach of these Terms, except to the extent attributable to LazyChimp.com's own wrongful conduct.

Nothing herein excludes liability that cannot legally be limited or waived.

11. BINDING ARBITRATION & CLASS ACTION WAIVER

IMPORTANT: THIS SECTION AFFECTS LEGAL RIGHTS, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO BRING CERTAIN CLAIMS IN COURT OR PARTICIPATE IN CLASS ACTIONS.

A. Agreement to Arbitrate

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each User who validly agrees to these Terms agrees that disputes, claims, or controversies arising out of or relating to LazyChimp.com, its services, this Offer Sheet, or transactions initiated or facilitated through the platform shall be resolved through final and binding individual arbitration rather than litigation in court, except as expressly provided below.

This arbitration agreement applies to disputes between a User and LazyChimp.com. It also applies between a seller and a participating Purchasing Dealer where both parties have validly agreed to these Terms and the arbitration agreement is otherwise enforceable between them.

B. Arbitration Administration

Arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) under its applicable Consumer Arbitration Rules or Commercial Arbitration Rules, as determined by the nature of the dispute and applicable law.

The Federal Arbitration Act governs this arbitration agreement to the extent applicable. The arbitrator may award relief available under applicable law. Arbitration fees and costs shall be allocated according to applicable AAA rules and governing law.

Hearings may be conducted remotely, through written submissions, or in person as permitted by the applicable rules.

C. Informal Dispute Resolution

Before initiating arbitration, the claimant shall provide written notice reasonably describing the dispute and requested relief and allow 30 days for good-faith informal resolution, except where immediate relief is legally necessary.

D. Class Action & Jury Trial Waiver

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, EACH PARTY AGREES THAT DISPUTES SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION SHALL BE RESOLVED INDIVIDUALLY, NOT THROUGH CLASS, COLLECTIVE, CONSOLIDATED, OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

For claims properly subject to arbitration, each party waives the right to a court trial and jury trial, except where such waiver is prohibited by law.

The arbitrator shall not conduct class arbitration without the express written consent of all affected parties.

E. Exceptions

Eligible individual claims may be brought in small claims court. Nothing in this agreement prohibits legally protected complaints to government agencies, claims that cannot lawfully be arbitrated, or judicial relief where required or permitted by applicable law.

F. Enforceability

If the class action waiver is determined unenforceable for a claim that must proceed on a class basis, that claim shall proceed in a court of competent jurisdiction rather than class arbitration, unless applicable law requires otherwise.

All remaining enforceable provisions shall remain effective.

12. GOVERNING LAW & GENERAL PROVISIONS

Illinois law governs disputes involving LazyChimp.com to the extent permitted by applicable law, without overriding mandatory protections of other jurisdictions.

These Terms supplement the applicable final transaction documents. Executed purchase documents control conflicting provisions concerning a completed vehicle sale, except where otherwise prohibited by law.

Electronic communications and records may be used where legally authorized. Failure to enforce a provision does not constitute a waiver of future enforcement. If any provision is unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain effective.

13. CONTINUING APPLICATION OF TERMS

These Terms apply to offers, communications, negotiations, and transactions conducted through LazyChimp.com to the extent a User has validly agreed to them. Completing a transaction outside the platform does not, by itself, terminate otherwise applicable contractual obligations arising from use of LazyChimp.com.

Applicable provisions concerning seller representations, liability, indemnification, dispute resolution, and enforcement survive completion or termination of a transaction to the extent permitted by law.

14. NOTICE

LazyChimp.com provides vehicle offer and transaction services subject to these Terms and applicable law. An offer does not guarantee purchase, payment, or completion of a transaction.

Users are responsible for reviewing the applicable Terms before participating in transactions through the platform.
